Heritage Council News & Notes

The Heritage Council is deeply saddened by the passing in May of two former Presidents Lawanda Smith and Judy (Volz) Myers. Lawanda was a founder of the museum and director for more than 10 years. Judy also served as director and treasurer. They will be sorely missed.

On a happier note, congratulations to our youngest member Kylee Myers, 15, granddaughter of Judy Myers and her softball team Illinois Esprit 14U Kassandra who played in the Softball World Series in Tennessee in July.

The Wood River Wedding Chapel formerly the 1st Lutheran Church, pictured left, is gearing up for its 100th anniversary next year with a new face lift. The PRIDE Bucket Brigade Team of Dream Home Realty, Sherry & Brad Gilleland donated their time and talents to paint the chapel and Labor Local 338 volunteers helped with scraping. Fred & Sue Berry contributed $500 for rental of a lift to assist in the efforts. We are grateful for all who contributed!

Camp News: Luke Reinhold, Camp Director announced a Pre 1840 Mountain Man Rendezvous scheduled October 24 & 25 at Camp Dubois. This is a great event for the whole family. Mark your Heritage Council calendars!

2016 Calendar: Will feature "Historic Wood River Churches". The Baptist and Lutheran churches will be celebrating 100 years in 2016 and others are nearing the 100 year mark. Calendars should be available in October and make a great collectors item.

Museum Exhibits:

October: The 3rd Annual "Small Works Art Show" will be held Oct. 8 - 29 at the museum.

November: The Annual Veterans Display will be set up for the month of November.

The Museum will be closed January and February. If you have questions or would like to schedule a visit, contact Bette Stanley at 618-593-1273. For information regarding membership, call Nancy Buchanan 618-259-1599. Members and volunteers are welcome!
